SEC. 3. Functions of the Interagency Boards.

(a) To assist the Secretary of State and other department and agency heads in carrying out their assigned responsibilities under the Foreign Service Act of 1946, as amended, and other laws --

(1) the Board of the Foreign Service shall make recommendations concerning the functions of the Foreign Service of the United States; the development of a personnel system which will be responsive to Presidential requirements and the changing conditions in United States foreign relations including the development of broad personnel policies and uniform standards and criteria of personnel administration of foreign affairs agencies; and shall perform the functions prescribed by section 637 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946, as amended (22 U.S.C. 1007);

(2) the Board of Examiners shall make recommendations regarding means for attracting persons of the highest caliber into the Foreign Service of the United States and shall make recommendations concerning the standards for the examination and appointment of such persons; and

(3) each Board shall perform such other functions and duties as the Secretary of State may prescribe.

SEC. 4. Federal Agencies. (a) Upon request of the Secretary of State, the heads of Federal departments and agencies shall as far as practicable provide to the Boards established pursuant to section 1 information and reports relating to matters within the cognizance of such Boards.

(b) Each Federal department and agency represented on the Boards established pursuant to section 1 shall furnish necessary assistance to such Boards in accordance with section 214 of the Act of May 3, 1945, 59 Stat. 134 (31 U.S.C. 691).

(c) The Department of State is hereby designated as the agency which shall provide administrative services for the Boards.

SEC. 5. Compensation and Per Diem. For each day any person appointed from private life to serve on or with the Boards established pursuant to section 1 is engaged in meetings, or is, with the approval of the Chairman of the Board engaged in other work in pursuance of the activities of the Board, such person shall receive compensation and travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, as authorized by law (5 U.S.C. 55a; 5 U.S.C. 73b-2) for persons in the Government service employed intermittently.

SEC. 6. Delegation of Authority.

(a) There is hereby delegated to the Secretary of State the authority heretofore vested in the Board of the Foreign Service by sections 445, 502, 522, 611, 622, and 623 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946, as amended, which are transferred to and vested in the President by section 1 of Reorganization Plan No. 4 of 1965.

(b) There is hereby delegated to the Secretary of State the authority heretofore vested in the Board of Examiners of the Foreign Service by sections 212(a), 516, and 517 of the Foreign Service Act of 1946, as amended, which are transferred to and vested in the President by section 1 of Reorganization Plan No. 4 of 1965.

SEC. 7. Saving Provisions. Except to the extent that they may be inconsistent with this order, all determinations, authorizations, regulations, rulings, certificates, orders, directives, contracts, agreements, and other actions made, issued or entered into with respect to any functions affected by this order and not revoked, superseded, or otherwise made inapplicable before the date of this order, shall continue in full force and effect until amended, modified, or terminated by appropriate authority.
